

GIUSEPPE NOTARNICOLA
Executive Vice President, Treasury, Insurance,
M&A, IP BU, Real Estate, and Italy Public Affairs
STMicroelectronics

Giuseppe Notarnicola is STMicroelectronics' Executive Vice President responsible for managing Treasury, a position he has held since February 2012. His responsibilities were expanded in 2013 to include Insurance and in 2018 to include M&A, IP BU, Real Estate and Public Affairs for Italy.

Notarnicola started his career with Banca Nazionale del Lavoro (BNL), one of Italy's largest banks, in 1987. At BNL, he rose to manage financial operations in Singapore, the Financial Department at BNL London, BNL's financial advisory arm for corporate and institutional customers, and in 2004, was promoted to Head of Large Corporate clients. Notarnicola joined ST in 2006 as Group Vice President responsible for corporate and worldwide treasury activities of ST and its affiliates. He initiated the Company's relationship with the European Investment Bank and managed the financing aspects of ST's Flash memory business spin-out, as well as strategic funding in the capital markets.

Notarnicola is Managing Director of STMicroelectronics Finance B.V., the Company's funding vehicle, and a board member of ST's Italian legal entity and several ST affiliates.

Giuseppe Notarnicola was born in Codroipo near Udine, Italy, in 1961. He graduated cum laude in Business Administration from the LUISS Guido Carli University in Rome, Italy.

Updated July 2018